

CHURCH OBSERVES 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Mt. Pleasant Congregational Opens Celebration.

CHURCH HISTORY IS REVIEWED

A. L. Sturtevant, President of Board of Trustees, Gen. Ellis Spear, and Others Deliver Addresses—“Fellowship” Meeting to Be Held To-night.

With appropriate addresses, recalling its past, relating its progress and prophesying for it a brilliant future, the three-day celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church was commenced last night before an audience which well filled the auditorium.

The exercises for the evening were planned as a reunion, with the idea of reviewing the entire life history of the church. E. S. Spear, senior deacon, and A. L. Sturtevant, president of the board of trustees, told of the history of the church and of the progress which had been made. The story of the organization and development of the various organizations connected with the church, such as the Sunday school, the Christian Raiders Society, and the women's societies, was also related.

Mr. Sturtevant stated that there had been three pastors since the organization of the church—Rev. Charles H. Small, who served from 1886 to 1891; Rev. M.
Rosa Plummer, D. D., who filled the pulpit from 1891 to 1900; and Rev. Frank J.
Goodwin, the present pastor, who was installed in 1900. He made mention of the fact that the church was organized November 2, 1886, and that the present edifice was dedicated October 2, 1904. The membership has grown from nineteen, at the time of organization, to 1,262.

A Scriptural Reading

Given by Marcus W. Baldwin, of the Christian Endeavor Society. The invocation was made by Rev. Edwin M. Bliss, D. D., leader of the men's Bible class. Gen. Ellis Spear, one of the seven surviving charter members who are still members of the church, delivered an address on the past history of the church and on its value to the community. Rev. John W. Chickering, one of the older members of the church, was scheduled for a speech, but he was unable to be present because of feebleness.

Dr. Woodrow Spinks

Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow, D. D., spoke on the field of opportunity which was open for the church to enter. He said that the church should not only educate the children in the Christian precepts, but should turn its attention toward the redemption of those who have fallen through sin. Dr. Woodrow congratulated the members of the church on their glorious past record.

The church choir furnished several musical selections.

At 8 o'clock to-night there will be a “fellowship meeting.” After an informal reception, addresses will be delivered by many prominent local clergymen, among whom are Rev. J. T. Kelly, Rev. J. T.

Enos, Rev. U. P. Dudley, Rev. C. H.
Butler, Rev. L. D. Clark, Rev. J. H. Taylor, Rev. J. W. Frizzell, Rev. W. F.
Smith, Rev. H. S. Pinkham, and Rev. P.
W. Jeffries. The benediction will be pronounced by Rev. W. E. De Remer. The speeches will be limited to five minutes each, so as not to make the exercises tiresome.

Sunday there will be special Sunday school services, and special morning and evening services. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a meeting of the women's organizations, and at 6:45 o'clock the young people's societies will hold special services.

PUBLIC BARRED AT HEARING.

Woman Detective Plays Chief Part

In Divorce Proceedings.
Hearings in the case of Charles A. Cotterill against Henri Garland Cottrell for an absolute divorce were held yesterday before Justice Wright. The hearings took place in chambers, the public being excluded. Mr. Cottrell and a number of witnesses gave their testimony. The case was continued until Monday, when it is expected the most important witnesses, who failed to put in an appearance yesterday, will give their testimony. The plain-tiff's case seems to rest principally on the allegations of a woman detective, who also gave her evidence yesterday.

HAS FAITH IN CUMMINS.

Reichman Denies Former Associate

Is Guilty of Wrongdoing.
New York, Nov. 2.—Half reclining in an invalid chair, his pallid cheeks flushing with indignation, Joseph B. Reichman, who is on trial for stealing $16,000 from the State banking department while president of the defunct Carnegie Trust Company, today declared his faith in William J.
Cummins, who is on trial for stealing $16,000, and denied that his former associate was guilty of any wrongdoing.

Reichman has suffered two paralytic strokes since his arrest and was in such an enfeebled condition today that he was near collapse several times.

Japanese Girl Weds Broker.

Stamford, Conn., Nov. 2.—Miss Toyko Murai, daughter of a Japanese millionaire, was married here today to Austin Fouchtewanger, a member of the New York Stock Exchange.

KALBFUS INQUIRY ENDS IN FIREWORKS

Assessor's Lawyer Attacks ex-Saloon Inspector.

UPHOLDS REAL ESTATE DEALS

No Regulation, Declares Counsel, Which Makes It Improper for Excise Board Officials to Do Outside Business—Verbal Assault on Bennett and Horstmann.

Taking a parting shot at former Representative Bennett, of New York, and H. Preston Galtier, attorney for F. Odell Horstmann, ex-saloon inspector, also took part in the defense of Samuel T.

Kalbfus and the excise board in general, Frank J. Hogan, attorney for Mr.
Kalbfus, yesterday afternoon summed up the Kalbfus-Horstmann investigation.

In defense of Mr. Kalbfus and the other members of the excise board, Mr.
Hogan said that it was improper for such officials to deal in real estate. He read the names of persons of prominence who had testified as to the integrity of Mr.
Kalbfus.

Assaults Mr. Bennett.

Mr. Hogan began his argument with an attack upon ex-Representative Bennett, who made the charges against Mr.
Kalbfus on the floor of the House.
“Bennett did not know Kalbfus—either the man or the official,” said Mr. Hogan. “The record here shows that Bennett did not know the accuser of Kalbfus, having been merely introduced to him.
When there was put into Bennett's hands the wherewithal to blight a name of good repute, the fact that he was a lawyer did not make him stop to investigate, hear evidence, and seek proof; the fact that he was a church elder did not lead him to scruple at being the medium of publicity for slander. For, Mr. Commissioner, he it remembered that Horstmann has testified here that his sole object in seeking Bennett and giving him the material for his speech was a desire for publicity.”

“Bennett took his unknown informant's muck and valiantly rushed where he could not be reached to circulate it.

Bennett differs from Horstmann in this inquiry only in that he did not come at all, while Horstmann came only to run away.”

Mr. Hogan then made a personal attack on Mr. Horstmann, after which he dwelt on the integrity of Mr. Kalbfus.

He reminded the Commissioners that among the persons who testified on the witness stand as to the good character of the members of the excise board were George E. Hamilton, Alexander H. Bell, William D. Hoover, William J. Richards, Frank P. Reeside, John Jay Edison, Alexander McKenzie, Peter A. Drury, and Mr. Trimble, the last named of the excise board.

“Mr. Kalbfus has invested in real estate,” said Mr. Hogan. “It was his right so to do. No law has been cited, and none can be, which made it illegal for him to do so. No law has been cited, and none can be, which in any way made it inadvisable for him to do so. You cannot single Kalbfus out, even in the present administration for criticism in this record, as every man in the assessor's office has frankly told you that he dealt in real estate to the extent of his ability and desire.”

William Henry White, assistant corporation counsel, left the case to the Commissioners without argument. Upon the request of Commissioner Rudolph Mr. Hogan, after protest, consented to prepare a Yalga of the testimony to aid the Commissioners in reaching a verdict. The verdict will be announced within two weeks.

James L. Feeney was on the witness stand for several minutes. He denied that he had provided former Representative Bennett with any information regarding the excise board.

TIGERS IN FINAL WORK-OUT.

Princeton, Nov. 2.—Thirty minutes of scrimmage with a strong scrum eleven this afternoon finished the Tigers' preparation for the game with Harvard Saturday. There was little change in the quality of play put up by the “Varsity.” They were able to push the ball across the goal line twice after many plunges.
The first string linemen smothered everything the scrubs hurled at them. Several forward passes were tried with but little success.

Most of the plays the Tigers will use against Harvard were run through Christie ran the team at quarter most of the time, while Penfield played quarter on the scrum, which was composed of first substitutes. Both practiced well, but it begins to look as if Christie would get the call to start the game.

Dunlap played at right end again today and may get the call over Hammond, who has been showing up well.

Hammond will be first substitute end.
Wright is still laid up with his wrenched knee and may not be able to play because the Yale game. Farr may not be in the game for two weeks, and may be out for the season.

Wilson is not entirely recovered from his injury received in scrimmage Tuesday.

He will be all right by Saturday, however.

About 1,000 undergraduates marched to the field this afternoon behind the college band, and practiced cheers and songs for the big event Saturday.

R. M. McCormick, Eastern representative of the Regal Motor Car Company, is in the city for a few days, as guest of Emerson & Orme, the local representatives.

The United Motor Washington Company

received its 1912 Silent Knight Columbia demonstrator yesterday, the car being driven over the road from Baltimore.

The motor of this car is of the sleeve type, which has been popular abroad for some time, but is just being introduced into this country.

“H. B. Lary, Jr., returned yesterday from a four days' trip through Virginia, made in a Hudson touring car. He went via the Valley route, crossing the Blue Ridge through Rock Fish Gap, and returned via Charlottesville, Orange and Warrenton, over what is commonly called the Ridge route.”

The Lozier Motor Company has opened a branch house in this city at 1215 H street northwest, which will be in charge of Mr. Deloy. This car has not been represented in Washington for some time, but in other cities where it has representation has proven a very popular machine. In racing, the Lozier has always been a consistent performer, and the work of the two entries in the Vanderbilt and the one in the Grand Prix, both of which races are to be run at Savannah the latter part of this month, shows the car now has representation here will be watched with additional interest.

On November 8, David S. Hendrick, who has the government contract for furnishing the automobiles to the Post-office Department, will put into service three Franklin trucks. These trucks are the regular one-ton chassis with specially built bodies, large enough to accommodate eight men in addition to the driver.

The plan is to send them from the Postoffice to outlying districts with the carriers and their mail aboard, dropping them off at the commencement of their route, and on return trip to pick up those carriers who have been collecting mail and have completed their route and are on their way back to the office.

The University of Wisconsin has established a course for public health officers.

TO SUBSCRIBERS

Subscribers renewing their subscriptions and desirous of securing votes in The Herald's World Tour Contest can have delivery continued by their regular carrier or news agent without loss to the latter. The carrier will continue to deliver the paper and will receive credit from The Herald until the expiration date of subscription.

TAYLOR SYSTEM IS

GIVEN INDORSEMENT

Secretary of War Stimson

Favors Efficiency Plan.

Secretary of War Stimson announced yesterday that he had adopted the so-called Taylor system of scientific management in the matter of manufacturing the Watertown Arsenal. In making this announcement, the Secretary hastened to anticipate protests from the labor world by saying that he had made a careful and exhaustive study of the system and had reached the conclusion that it was not only the best available for the army in the instance of the Watertown Arsenal, but also for the laborers.

The Secretary stated that there has been a pronounced increase in the efficiency of manufacture at the shop and a material reduction in the cost of manufacture.

“But, of even more importance,” he says, “these results have been obtained without in any wise endangering the interests of the workmen, either by decreasing their pay or requiring unpleasant exertion, or ‘speeding up.’” He says that, on the contrary, any increase in real efficiency must inure to the benefit of the workers.

“I have been too long and too vitally interested in and active in movements which make for the advancement of the conditions of labor,” he says, “for not to see the slightest encouragement to any theories which work counter to the true interests of labor. To my mind, scientific management can and deserves to prevail only where increased efficiency means increased human efficiency and the workmen's participation in the rewards resulting from efficiency. It means a betterment, and in no wise an impairment of the conditions of labor.”

Secretary Stimson adds that the War

Department's work is still in the experimental stage, but that he has strong hopes that by co-operation and a willingness to see the facts fairly economized will result to the government, betterment to workmen, and a more satisfactory and more human relation between the two in the future than in the past.

He declared that it does not in any way resemble “sweatshop” methods, as has been charged by some.

It is shown in the statement that the Taylor system leaves no room for the labor dogs. Those who produce are recognized and those who are sluggish and nonproductive are sifted out.

Through the economy to the government, it is held that better pay will be allotted to the workmen.
